

PURITAN LIT MATRIX -- A way to study the whole unit in one spot.

When you have a unit with many parts, it's good to organize those parts. Use this matrix to pull all of your study together in one place. Fill in the boxes below with jot notes to study. Look for patterns, contrasts, and comparisons. You can find all texts, literary star info and literary terms at charlesyoung.com under "Freshman English Literary Links."

TEXTS	AUTHORS	MAIN IDEAS – PLOTS & CHARACTERS	THEMES	LITERARY TERMS
The Lottery	Shirley Jackson			gothic horror
Upon the Burning of Our House	Anne Bradstreet			extended metaphor
To My Dear and Loving Husband
In Reference to Her Children
Huswifery	Edward Taylor			conceit
The Courtship of Miles Standish	Henry Wadsworth Longfellow			epic
The Devil & Tom Walker	Washington Irving			folktale
Young Goodman Brown	Nathaniel Hawthorne			allegory